

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy

Our annual turnover is under £36 million and although we are not legally obliged to report on slavery and human trafficking, this statement outlines Cain Bio-Engineering Ltd response to The Act.

1. Policy Statement

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in any part of our business or in our supply chains. This policy reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere within our supply chains.

2. Supply Chain

Our procurement activities take place in the UK and our contractors and suppliers are predominantly UK based. We expect our suppliers and other companies we engage with to ensure their goods, materials and labour-related supply chains fully comply with the Modern Slavery Act 2015, and are transparent, accountable and auditable; and are free from ethical ambiguities.

3. Cain Bio-Engineering Ltd has taken the following actions since the introduction of the Modern Slavery Act 2015

A) We are providing appropriate training to ensure that relevant employees understand the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking within our business and supply chains.

B) We consider ourselves to be a 'low risk' business with regard to slavery and human trafficking. However, we foster a culture that encourages the identification and reporting of any such risks within our business.

C) Contract Terms and Conditions used for purchase orders and contracts include the requirement for compliance by suppliers with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
